On the basis of source information, a Preliminary Enquiry no. PE0082024A0009 dated 03.11.2024 was registered by CBI, ACB, Bhopal for alleged misconduct committed by unknown public servant(s) and Private person(s). The Preliminary Enquiry was conducted by Mrs. Kalpana Pandey, Inspector, CBI, ACB, Bhopal and the outcome of the enquiry is detailed below:

1. Enquiry revealed that Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia was the sole account holder of the A/c No.05020100002468 operational at Siyaganj branch, BoB, Indore. This account was opened as an individual account in 1987. Later this account was fraudulently converted into joint account with Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke (Purported Son-in-law of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia) without the consent of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia on 08.08.2023. Later, this account was fraudulently transferred to Zaveri Bazar branch and Badlapur branch, Mumbai and then to Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur by applying forged application for the same. The enquiry revealed that 37,50,000/- was fraudulently withdrawn from this account through cheques which got issued to suspect Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke from Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur. This was in contravention to the prevalent guidelines of the bank.
2. During enquiry Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia was examined over video conferencing as he is living in California, US since 2000 He stated that he never visited India since October 2019. The same fact was proved from the passport detail provided by Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia through Whatsapp. Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia was the account holder of the A/c No.05020100002468 operational at Siyaganj branch, BoB, Indore. This account was opened as an individual account in 1987. Since then, Regular Deposits and Withdrawals were made in the account until 2019. However, from 2020 to January 2023 only deposits were made in the account. Later this account was fraudulently converted into joint account with Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke (Purported Son-in-law of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia) without the consent of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia on 08.08.2023. However, on examining

Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia it was found that he does not know Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke and denies having any relation with him. It was further revealed that Rs 37,50,000/- was withdrawn from this account from August 2023 to February 2024 without the consent of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia. The said withdrawals were made through cheques which were issued to suspect Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke from Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur.

3. It was found that Siyaganj Branch, Indore had received an email containing application along with KYC and specimen signatures of primary account holder Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhiya and other joint holder Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke from Zaveri Bazaar branch, Mumbai on 07/08.08.2023. However, Siyaganj Branch and Zaveri Bazaar Branch failed to produce the copies of E-Mail for this correspondence.
4. On receiving application for conversion of this account into joint account, application was received by Ms. Pricilla Noronha Chief Manager, Zaveri Bazaar, Mumbai on 07.08.2023. Her counter sign is available on the application. In the KYC which was attached with the application, Sh. Harshal Prakash, Manager signature was there.
5. Sh. Harshal Prakash was examined. He denied that he had signed on these KYCs and signature specimen card. He also stated that he was transferred from this branch in Feb, 2023. On 07.08.2023, he had attended office in RO, BoB, Mumbai earlier. But his credentials including signature was used to verify the signature for specimen card to convert joint account. This act shown the intent and involvement of unknown public servant in the matter.
6. On 08.08.2023, Sh. Aditya Khandelwal, the then Manager (Scale -2), Siyaganj branch, Indore matched the signature of Sh. Turakhia available on FINACLE, Sh. Yogesh Nagrale, Scale-II, Siyaganj Branch, Indore verified this KYC and process the application. Now this application forwarded to Sh. Vinay Singh, Clerk, Siyaganj Branch, Indore who converted the account into joint account.
7. Sh. Aditya Khandelwal was examined and he stated that the application for conversion into joint account was received from Zaveri Bazaar Branch, Mumbai through E-Mail. However, there is no trace available on E-Mail history of Siyaganj branch whether it is received or not.
8. Sh. Bharat, Clerk, Zaveri Branch, Mumbai was examined. He had received the application for transfer of joint account in the name of Sh. Turakhia and

Sh. Ramteke. He also ignored the laid down process for transfer of joint account to other branch by not verifying the signatures and physical present of both the account holders and forwarded the same to Sh Anil P, Officer (Scale-I), Zaveri Bazar, Mumbai for further processing. Sh. Anil P forwarded this matter to Ms. Komal, Clerk, Zaveri Bazar, Mumbai who mailed the application along with KYC documents to transfer the account from Siyaganj branch Indore to Zaveri bazar branch Mumbai.

9. The application for transfer of account was processed by Sh. Aditya Khandelwal, Sh. Yogesh Nagrale and Sh. Vinay Singh in Siyaganj branch, Indore and transferred the account to Zaveri bazaar, Mumbai on 22.08.2023.
10. Again a fresh application for transfer of account from Zaveri Bazaar branch, Mumbai to Badlapur branch, Mumbai was received in Zaveri bazaar branch from Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke on 24.08.2023. Application was received by Sh. Anil Kumar and processed by Ms. Komal and transferred this account to Badlapur branch, Mumbai on same day.
11. On 24.08.2023, Sh. Akash Ramteke reached Badlapur branch, Mumbai and applied for cheque book for this account. Official of Badlapur branch declined his application for issuing cheque book.
12. On 29.08.2023, Nandanvan branch, Nagpur received an application by Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke to transfer this account from Badlapur branch to Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur. This application was received by Sh Sunil Rudhaje Walde, who forwarded the request to Badlapur branch over email dated 29.08.2023. The application was processed by Smt Gayatri Arvind Kulkarni and Sh Vishal Bhimrao Shinde, Badlpaur branch, Thane. Badlapur branch transferred this account to Nandanvan branch, Nagpur after processing the same.
13. Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke applied through an application/ form for issuance of cheque book in Nandanvan branch, was received and processed by Sh Sunil Rudhaji Walde, the then Senior Manager (Scale-3), Nandanvan branch, Nagpur on 01.09.2023. Nandanvan branch issued a cheque book containing 10 leaves to Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke on same day without observing the laid down guideline/circular of BoB which enabled the suspect to withdraw the amount from bank account.

14. Following fraudulent transactions were made in the account:-

04.09.2023	50,000/-	Itwari branch, Nagpur (Cheque No. 584843)
04.09.2023	33,50,000/-	Nandanvan branch, Nagpur (Cheque No. 584841, 584844)
07.09.2023	50,000/-	Prince branch, Mumbai (Cheque No. 584845)
04.01.2024	50,000/-	Marine branch, Mumbai (Cheque No. 584846)
05.01.2024	50,000/-	Bullio branch, Mumbai (Cheque No. 584847)
06.01.2024	50,000/-	Bullio branch, Mumbai (Cheque No. 584849)
17.02.2024	1,50,000/-	Bullio branch, Mumbai (Cheque No. 584850)

15. Sh Rajeev Choudhary, the then Chief manager, Siyanganj Branch, Indore that circulars/guidelines were not followed by Sh Aditya Khandelwal, the then Officer (Scale-2), Siyanganj branch, Indore Sh. Yogesh Nagrale, the then Manager (Scale-2), Siyaganj branch, Indore and Sh. Vinay Chuahan, Clerk, Siyanganj branch, Indore for converting the Individual account into Joint account. The mode by which application received was not known. Original application along with KYC was also not found neither in Zaveri Bazaar Branch, Mumbai nor in Siyaganj Branch, Indore. Sh Rajeev Choudhary, the then Chief Manager was on the training during the period of 07.08.2023 to 09.08.2023 at Bangalore. Unknown bank official(s) accessed the E-Mail ID (SIYAGA@bankofbaroda.com) of Siyaganj branch, got the printout of the application received from Zaveri Bazaar branch and deleted the E-Mail, so that no trace would be remained available for source of application.

16. The report of preliminary enquiry conducted by Mrs. Kalpana Pandey, Inspector, CBI, ACB, Bhopal is duly approved by the competent authority of CBI, Bhopal, which prima facie discloses the cognizable offences punishable u/s 120-B r/w 420, 467, 468, 471 of IPC and Section r/w 13(1)(a) and 13(2) of PC Act, 1988 (as amended in 2018), on part of Sh. Sub: Conversion Note of Preliminary Enquiry into Registered case-reg.

Sir,

It is submitted that on the basis of source information, a Preliminary Enquiry no. PE 0082024A0009 dated 03.11.2024 was registered by CBI, ACB, Bhopal for alleged misconduct committed by unknown public servant while being posted at Bank of Baroda Siyaganj branch, Indore, on the following allegations.

1. Unknown officials of Bank of Baroda entered into a criminal conspiracy with unknown private individuals and fraudulently misappropriated Rs 37,50,000/- in Savings Bank A/c No. 05020100002468 held in the name of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia by converting the individual account into joint account and transferring the account to another branch of BoB.

Result of Enquiry:

1. Enquiry revealed that Sh Satish Bhailal Turakhia was the account holder of the A/c No.05020100002468 operational at Siyaganj branch, BoB, Indore. This account was opened as an individual account in 1987. Later this account was fraudulently converted into joint account with Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke (Purported Son-in-law of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia) without the consent of Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia on 08.08.2023. Later, this account was transferred to Zaveri Bazar branch and Badlapur branch, Mumbai and then to Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur by applying forged application for the same.
2. It was revealed in the enquiry that Rs 37,50,000/- was withdrawn from this account through cheques which got issued to suspect Sh. Akash Ajit Ramteke from Nandanvan Branch, Nagpur.
3. During enquiry, circulars of BoB have been collected regarding account transfer from one branch to another branch, to convert individual account into joint account and to issue cheque book for a bank account. As per the circulars, the laid down process of BoB are as under:-

- 1) Single account may be converted into joint accounts, as long as the account is in credit, provided the following procedure is adhered to:
 - a. Branch should obtain a letter of request for conversion from the existing account holder and should note the date of conversion and change in the nomenclature in the system, pass book, specimen signature card, etc.
 - b. Branch should also obtain new specimen signature card /account opening form, duly signed by all the joint account holders. Operational instructions from all the joint account holders be obtained on new specimen signature card/account opening form duly signed by all the joint account holders, in the presence of an officer, at the place where operational instructions are mentioned. The dealing officer should countersign the specimen signature card/account opening form in full. Operational instructions should be noted on the, pass book and the system etc.
 - c. New specimen signature card / form and old specimen signature card should be kept together along with the letter of request for conversion.
 - d. Signatures of all the account holders must be scanned and uploaded in the system immediately.
- 2) Where the accountholder approaches the transferee branch to transfer his account-
 - a. The party should be requested to address a letter to the transferor branch indicating there in, his desire to have the account transferred to the other branch.
 - b. The transferee branch should verify the signature / identity of the account holder on the letter of request viewing scanned signature/photograph in the system and then collect all the unused cheque forms and the relative pass book. The unused cheque forms must, at once, be destroyed by the branch after taking a note of their numbers.
 - c. A full set of account opening forms duly completed and signed by the party should be taken by the transferee branch where request has been made after taking fresh KYC document such as address proof, photograph and introduction if required.

- d. The transferee branch should forward the letter of request, pass book and new set of account opening forms to the transferor branch under cover of form No. 226 intimating to close the account and credit the proceeds to New G/L Intermediary account of transferee branch.

4. During enquiry Sh. Satish Bhailal Turakhia was examined over video conferencing as he is living in California, US since 2000 He stated that he never visited India since October 2019.
