Ref:

It has come to my knowledge that one company by the name of Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society have been engaged in the collection of amounts from customers through agents, opening of savings and recurring accounts, deposit accounts, etc with the promise of payment of a high rate of interest on the amount deposited.

During preliminary enquiry it was found that the said company is not registered under RBI and SEBI and is operating in violation of the guidelines laid down for the functioning of NBFC's by the regulatory authority. The company has promised a high rate of interest to customers thereby luring them to invest their hard-earned money. The investors are unaware as to where their money is being invested and there is a high risk that the money will be siphoned off through fraudulent means also the customers have no recovery or protection in cause of default.

Hence it is clear that the company is operating with the ulterior motive to dupe the customers by promising them a high rate of returns on their investments. It is therefore requested to take necessary legal action against the Directors/managers/owners etc of the Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society.

Yours faithfully

12. First Information contents :

Now SI Jyotishman Borah of Sivasagar PS lodged a written FIR stating that one company by the name of Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society have been engaged in the collection of amounts from customers through agents, opening of savings and recurring accounts, deposit accounts, etc with the promise of payment of a high rate of interest on the amount deposited. During preliminary enquiry it was found that the said company is not registered under RBI and SEBI and is operating in violation of the guidelines laid down for the functioning of NBFCs by the regulatory authority. The company has promised a high rate of interest to customers thereby luring them to invest their hard-earned money. The investors are unaware as to where their money is being invested and there is a high risk that the money will be siphoned off through fraudulent means also the customers have no recovery or protection in case of default.

Hence it is clear that the company is operating with the ulterior motive to dupe the customers by promising them a high rate of returns on their investments. It is therefore requested to take necessary legal action against the Directors' managers/owners etc of the Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society. Hence the case.

Ref:

It has come to my knowledge that one company by the name of Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society have been engaged in the collection of amounts from customers through agents, opening of savings and recurring accounts, deposit accounts, etc with the promise of payment of a high rate of interest on the amount deposited.

During preliminary enquiry it was found that the said company is not registered under RBI and SEBI and is operating in violation of the guidelines laid down for the functioning of NBFC's by the regulatory authority. The company has promised a high rate of interest to customers thereby luring them to invest their hard-earned money. The investors are unaware as to where their money is being invested and there is a high risk that the money will be siphoned off through fraudulent means also the customers have no recovery or protection in cause of default.

Hence it is clear that the company is operating with the ulterior motive to dupe the customers by promising them a high rate of returns on their investments. It is therefore requested to take necessary legal action against the Directors/ managers/owners etc of the Lakhimi Thrift and Credit Co-operative society.
